Financial Analyst-Sue Hilty

General Fund Operating Expense goal of $33,300 has been met, which will cover all our expenses for this year. $11,000 Trip Reserve goal; $7,643 to date.

Florida Assessment $450; actual cost over $800, difference will come out of Trip Reserves built up from previous years. Finalizing details on Florida trip. Assessment of $450 due April 30. If assessments are not paid by then, there will be a cancellation fee you will be responsible for.

Treasurer-Kevin Neely

We have earned $150 in interest in the first month on our Money Market account at Citizens. Maintaining a $25,000 checking account balance at Apollo Trust.

Financial Secretary-Kathy Yandura

Some students still do not have their Marching Band assessments paid; working with families to get these paid. Statements via e-mail went out a week ago. Mailed statements will be going out as soon as they are updated. If you have any questions, please let Kathy know. If you are not getting your statement by e-mail, and you signed up for it, please contact Kathy.

Ways and Means-Colleen Blackham

$3,376 income for January. Scrip, candy, McBucks and Giant Eagle dates for March: March 3, 17 and 31. Worthington Market increased hoagie cost to $4.75 plus $20 delivery. Changed to Fazio's from Arnold at a cost of $4.25. Tomatoes were an extra 10 cents; KAIB paid for this month. Please e-mail KAIB with your feedback on taste and increase in price to cover tomatoes.

Apollo Relay for Life taking place June 13-14. Kiski Area Marching Band will be a sponsor due to our $2,500 donation in Stephanie Nicholas' name from the Car Cruise. Our team is "Strides for Steph". Working on a logo for our shirts. Students are encouraged to come out and walk. More details to follow.

Spring Flower chairperson needed. Twin Valley was a new vendor last year; very happy with product. Forms are provided by Twin Valley. More details in the next couple weeks. Help will be needed on delivery date.

Winterguard-Rita Aber

Competition went very smoothly. Thank you band parents and students, alumni parents and students and Winterguard parents for your assistance. No final numbers yet. Will not be as large as Finals last year; but need to host a regular show to stay on the list to host Finals. Would like to see changes made by TRWEA with fees for judges; $3,000 judges fees for regular show, same as Championships. Norwin Competition Sat., Feb. 23. Dayton Feb. 29-March 2; Gateway and Norwin will be there. Three more shows in March; finals in April at Gateway.

Statements were given out to Winterguard girls. Student credits for three fund raisers have been turned in. Pretzels, Avon, Fudge and Sarris Easter candy has not been turned in yet. Upcoming fund raisers: Fazio's pepperoni rolls, Zum Zum pierogies, Strudel and Spring bulbs. Remaining funds from Winterguard accounts (after Winterguard assessments are taken out) are transferred to Marching Band account. Winterguard assessments will be higher next year.

Krysta Geary's mother passed away last week. 20 Winterguard girls went to the funeral home. Please keep her in your prayers.

Vice President-Gina Scheller

Concert clothes need to be dry cleaned; launder shirts between wear. Band uniforms also need to be dry cleaned before Memorial Day parade so they are clean for Florida parade. If your account assessments are paid, and you have money left in your student account, you may submit a receipt to be reimbursed for dry cleaning. If you are missing any pieces to your uniform, or it is in need of repair, please let Gina know immediately. Gloves are available any time, contact Gina. Winterguard uniforms have not been decided on for Florida. When Winterguard season is over, the girls will need to make additional hoops.

New intermediate band safe is now in the intermediate band room for fund raising. Mrs. Marco was given 120 fund raising packets for students on Jan. 21. If your student did not receive one, please let Mrs. Marco know. A student account form is included in the packet.

Soliciting a chairperson for the Kiski Competition.

President-Rick McWilliams
